The choice is yours but we recommend their product called Travel-Lite.*

20 days before departure, we will mail you the following:

1. Your airline E-tickets (electronic tickets) with pertinent info. NOTE: Regent will handle all of the ticketing for both the domestic and international portions of your air travel. Because prices are quoted on a group tour basis, frequent flier miles cannot be honored or used to purchase tickets. However, they may be used to upgrade your seating. Travel in Italy by AC Coach.
2. Luggage Tags with Regent Contact Information
3. Tour ID Button
4. Itinerary with hotel listings & contact information (telephone & fax numbers), as well as our Italy Regent Office contact information for emergencies.

You may receive a notice that the airline portion of the tour may need to be paid prior to the final invoice billing to secure ticketing in an increasingly difficult market. We will contact you with payment options which may include your credit card.

Departure Date: Your trip begins from your local airport to the Gateway airport, then on to ITALY.

Arrival in India: You will be greeted by your local Guide and transported to your hotel.

Updates and Advisories: We may periodically send you updates and travel advisories, if necessary. Our responsibility to you includes keeping you up to date on information that could have a bearing on your travel experience. Although there have been some events over the past years which may have caused some to consider postponing or canceling their trip, we have never had an incident or problem on any of our tours. At times the news media may outline issues in specific areas of a country, but this does not mean the entire country has been affected.

Know that seasoned travelers rarely cancel their travel plans because of headlines; and in the event that an issue may affect our tour, we will change the itinerary accordingly to avoid any unnecessary risk to our tour participants. Of course, our advice is always to have travel insurance for that additional peace of mind and protection from the unforeseen. Our experience has proven this to be true!
